COMPLAINT AFFIDAVIT

On December 22, 2016, Fernando Gustavo Castaneda-Sandoval (hereinafter “DEFENDANT”) in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington, was sentenced to a term of 41.5 months confinement and 36 months of supervised release in 1:15-CR-02037-LRS-1. On April 13, 2018, the Defendant’s supervised release commenced. The Defendant’s term of supervised release is scheduled to expire on April 12, 2021.

On October 29, 2019, U.S Probation filed a Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender Under Supervision. The Petition alleged multiple violations of supervised release. On the same day, the Honorable Lonny R. Suko, Senior District Court Judge, ordered the issuance of an arrest warrant.

The Defendant was subsequently apprehended. In regards to the October 29, 2019 petition, on January 30, 2020, the Defendant appeared for an Initial Appearance hearing. At that time, the Honorable United States Magistrate Judge John T. Rogers remanded the Defendant to the custody of the United States Marshals Service. The United States Marshals Service¹ confined the Defendant in the Yakima County Jail pending future court hearings.

¹ The United States Marshals Service operates at the direction of the Attorney General. See 28 C.F.R. § 0.1. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 4086, the Attorney General, “shall provide for the safe-keeping of any person arrested, or held under authority of the any enactment of Congress pending commitment to an institution.” Congress has authorized the Attorney General to delegate responsibility for the safe-keeping of pre-trial detainees to the United States Marshals Service. 18 U.S.C. § 4013. 18 U.S.C. § 4013 authorizes the Attorney General to make payments from the Federal Prisoner Detention Appropriation for the necessary clothing, medical care, guard services, housing,

On March 23, 2020, the Defendant and several other inmates broke through a door, jumped over a fence, and fled from the Yakima County Jail.

The Defendant's whereabouts are currently unknown.
